NEED FOR STORIES AND ROTARY/SCOUT INTERACTIONS

Editors Note: Per our President’s Letter, we are looking for stories and pictures of interesting Rotary/Scout interactions to share with everyone. Given how so many of the larger meetings are likely to be affected this year, your stories – while always important to us – will now be even more important. Let us know what you are doing! You can share stories with IFSR at ifsr@scoutingrotarians.org

LETTER FROM OUR PRESIDENT PDG MARK KRIEBEL

Happy New Year Scouting Rotarians! Who would have thought a year ago that all our lives would be impacted by a virus that had few cases and was only detected in a small number of areas worldwide? We now know how small the world is, and how susceptible we are to unexpected events. Whether a medical pandemic or a large-scale natural disaster, we all recognize that we are in it together, and as Scouts and Rotarians we know to “Be Prepared” and put “Service Above Self”.

The ways we do Scouting and Rotary has changed over the last year, and we will likely never fully return to what we knew as business as usual. Our traditional meetings have been mostly remote, masks are the uniform of the day, and our large gatherings have been postponed. The IFSR membership has continued to support our Scouting Units and Rotary Clubs in new and innovative ways, some of which you will read about in this newsletter. You officers have continued in our positions for another year, as the annual meetings of our regions and our International meeting was not held due to the pandemic. Our Scouting Partner Organizations (WOSM and WAGGGS) and Rotary International are still evaluating the ability to hold meetings and Conventions, so at this time we cannot confirm that events like the RI Convention in Taiwan will take place. This year’s Rotary International Assembly, which was scheduled to move to Orlando this month after many years in San Diego, has turned into a virtual meeting. We will keep you posted as information is shared with us.

One of the best things the IFSR does is recognize our Scouting Rotarians who render extraordinary service to both organizations through bestowing the Cliff Dochterman Award. Information about the award, including a list of past recipients, is on our website. If you look at the recipient list, you will see that we are less than 20 recipients from the 1,000 mark! Your IFSR Board has decided to make the goal of reaching 1,000 recipients a priority this year, and I am pleased to share that the one-thousandth recipient will be surprised with some extra recognitions! When I was District Governor, the one millionth Paul Harris Fellow was in my District, and the excitement that surrounded that award was as incredible for the recipient as it was for the Rotary Foundation. I think we can have similar success in the promotion of our thousandth Cliff Dochterman awardee throughout the Rotary and Scouting worlds. What’s more, Past RI President Cliff is still active and, at age 95, it would be a tribute to reach this milestone as a continuing tribute to Cliff.

Finally, this time of the year begs reflection on the past and an eye to the future. I want to thank those IFSR leaders who continue to actively offer their time and talents to our Fellowship, but most importantly all of you, our members. Each of you makes a difference! Thank you!

President Mark

CLIFF DOCHTERMAN AWARD – HONORING SERVICE TO SCOUTING

All, we only have 17 to go to have awarded 1000 Cliff Dochterman Awards. That we have awarded so many underscores the quality of folks involved in Scouting and Rotary. It would be great to award the 1000th during 2021. Below explains this lofty award.

The Cliff Dochterman Award is an honor available to recognize an individual Rotarian or Rotaractor who acts as a role model and renders distinguished and dedicated service to Scouting through active service, leadership or other exemplary contributions to the Scouting organization of his or her home country, or internationally to any WOSM or WAGGGS recognized Scouting association.

THIS award for Rotarians serving Scouting is available through the IFSR, Executive Secretary. The Award honors former RI President Cliff Dochterman, a devoted scouter from Moraga, California, USA.

Cliff Dochterman served as the President of Rotary International during 1992-93. His professional career in higher education administration included 20 years at the University of California in Berkeley and 20 years at the University of the Pacific.

The Cliff Dochterman Award, a bronze medallion hung from a gold and blue ribbon, may be awarded by a local Rotary Club or District Governor to an active Rotarian who has rendered exemplary service to scouting.

Information and a nomination form are available HERE as a PDF document (requires Adobe Acrobat Reader), or from the IFSR-IAR Secretary at P.O. Box 19982, San Diego, CA 92159-0982, USA.

The Boy Scouts of America Relationships Committee has approved the wearing of the BSA Community Service Knot by Dochterman Award recipients who are members of the B.S.A. It is with great pride and appreciation that the IFSR awards this recognition to exemplary Rotarians and Scouters in the name of Dr. Clifford L. Dochterman.

IFSR ITALIAN SEA SCOUTS

“ The real way to be happy is to bring happiness to others. Try to leave this world a little better than you found it and you will not have wasted your time ”. These are the words of Robert Baden-Powell, founder, in 1907, of the Scouts, which express what are also the aims of Rotary, founded by Paul Harris in 1905: to serve to improve the society in which one acts, to direct one's behavior in order to do good in the world. The International Fellowship of Scouting Rotarians (IFSR), the only recognized organization of Rotarians involved in Scouting, was formed precisely to develop a strong association between Rotarians who are or have been active members or supporters of the Scouting Movement.

On Tuesday evening, on the platform, the first IFSR - Italia Rotariani - Scout d'Italia meeting was organized by the National "IFSR" Coordinator, Dr. Dino Bruno , during which various initiatives were proposed to promote the growth and development of the Scout Movement within the 13 Italian Rotary Districts. Doctor Dino Bruno, President of the "Rotary Club Salerno Est", who has been a Scout since 1977, explained that the Scout Fellowship is aimed at adults: scouting. He has been a Scout and a Rotarian all his life ". Dr. Bruno also announced that "nautical scouting" is about to be born in Salerno: It is a form of scouting lived in places linked to water. A nautical explorer in addition to having learned the methodology and techniques typical of a land camper, must add to these all the baggage of experience, knowledge, terminology, safety and love for the sea. In Salerno we will sign a memorandum of understanding with Dr. Ernesto Levi, Commodore of the Salerno Fleet of the International Sailing Fellowship, which brings together Rotarians passionate about the sea and boats, to try to create a nautical scout center where to carry out marine scouting activities ".

To bring greetings from the members of the Rotary District 2100 was the Governor Massimo Franco who recalled that he was Scout Chief and explained that the Scout Fellowship is an opportunity for Rotary: "It should be shared with all 4500 Rotarian members of the 13 Italian Rotary Districts. Rotary has entered the seventh area of intervention dedicated to environmental sustainability and on March 21 we will celebrate the Rotarian day of the environment also with the participation of the Scout Fellowship ". Also the Appointed Governor of the 2072 Rotary District, Luciano Alfieri, is introducing the Scout Fellowship to Rotarian members from Emilia Romagna and the Republic of San Marino: "I wrote a letter to the presidents of the Rotary and Rotaract clubs."

The PDG of Rotary District 2100 Alfredo Focà recalled that he was a Scout: "There is a strong parallelism between Scouting and Rotary: in Scouting there is self-education and training based on play, in Rotary instead there is a 'Service-based self-training". Dr. Luigi Falanga, National President of the Fellowships, member of the Rotary Club of Catania, who was a scout, explained the importance of the role of the Fellowships: "They are an extraordinary tool that allows you to enhance the peculiarities of Rotary".

After the greetings of the President of the IFSR Europe Region, the PDG Zdenek Michalek who appreciated the initiatives of the Italian Scout Fellowship: "Italy has great growth potential", the new members were presented: the Salerno architect Anna Di Palo , scout since 1981, member of the "Rotary Salerno" ; the Headmaster Michelangelo Riemma, member of the Rotary Club Nola Pomigliano D'Arco, scout since 1974; Dr. Claudio Polese , of the Rotary Club Torre Del Greco Vesuviani Municipalities, scout since he was seven years old; the young Rotaractor Francesco Rosiello , Delegate of District 2080, member of the Rotaract Tirreno Monte Mario Club, scout since 2000 and Dr. Anna Maria Rebuttato, President of the Rotary Club Albenga, scout since 1976.

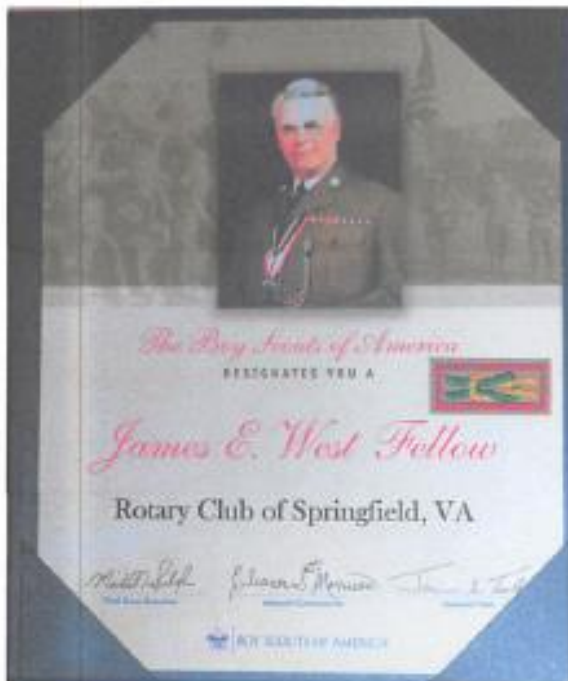

The President Dino Bruno has also appointed Dr. Carlo Amoretti , member of the Rotary Club of Imperia, scout with great experience, Responsible for relations with the National Federation of the Scout Movement. Dr. Fabrizio Moscati , Delegate of District 2100, member of the Rotary Club Salerno af 1949, recalled the initiatives carried out by the Rotary clubs and the Scout groups of the Salerno area during the pandemic: "We delivered Caritas parcels during the period of the Lockdown and organized an online charity raffle for needy families in the area. We have also set up an award for the scout group that stood out during the pandemic that we will deliver in January"

ROTARIANS RECEIVE JAMES E WEST AWARDS

Each year, the National Capital Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America recognizes recipients of the James E. West Award at a special event held at the council headquarters in Bethesda, MD. This year the event was conducted virtually. The Rotary Club of Springfield, Virginia, and Mr. Garland C. Black III, a member of the Rotary Club of Springfield, Virginia, were among the honorees. The award includes a certificate, an embroidered knot to wear on the Scout uniform shirt, and a lapel pin for civilian wear. The National Capital Area Council has a brick engraved and placed in the patio and walkway in front of the council's headquarters.

The James E. West Award is presented to those who donate at least $1,000.00 to the Capital Area Council's endowment fund. The interest on money in that fund supports major programs like the council's camps, the Goshen Scout Reservation and Camp William B. Snyder, camp scholarships, and uniforms for Scouts in need. The council's endowment is meant to support scouting far into the future and is an important way to insure funding for long term future needs.

B-P Bits:

"Commanding Officers at the front frequently said that they found soldiers who had been Boy Scouts were specially useful for trench warfare because they knew how to hide themselves and how to creep about in the dark without losing their way. As you know, most of the work of raiding and attacking is done by night in order to avoid being seen by the enemy. One officer who had used Boy Scouts for this work was at his wits' end when he tried to use other soldiers - they were too clumsy. But to be able to get about by night requires a great deal of practice, and lots of fellows have lost their way, and in consequence, have lost their lives by starting out on night raids thinking that they could do it all right without ever having tried it before."

Scouting improves mental health - Being a Scout or Girl Guide helps to lower the risk of mental illness later in life, according to researchers from Edinburgh and Glasgow universities. From their study of 10,000 people from across the United Kingdom who were born in 1958, they discovered a significant number of those who participated in the movements as children tended to have better mental health at age 50. In fact, former Scouts and Girl Guides were 15% less likely to suffer from anxiety or mood disorders compared with others. Building resilient kids is also another big benefit of being involved in the Scout Movement. Scouts participate in many outdoor activities and major events like Jamborees where they are away from home for up to 14 days, learning how to care for themselves and others.

Scouting in BAHRAIN:

BAHRAIN
Historic membership badge

The Boy Scouts of Bahrain (جمعية كشافة البحرين) was founded in 1953, and became a member of the World Organization of the Scout Movement in 1970. The Boy Scouts of Bahrain has 2,301 members as of 2011.

The small Bahraini Scout organization often participates in cooperative events with neighboring Kuwait and Qatar. Scouts are involved in community service such as cleaning polluted areas and spraying insecticides, giving blood and helping to organize blood donor services, assistance at sports events and taking charge of first aid at schools.

Sections include Al-Ashbal (Cub Scouts)-8 to 12; Al-fetian (Boy Scouts)-12 to 14; Al-Matakadem (Rovers)-14 to 18; and a section for handicapped Scouts.

There are American Boy Scouts in Manama. The troop's membership generally is drawn from Americans and occasionally foreign nationals attending Bahrain School.

The Bahrain School also sponsors a Cub Scout unit for younger boys. There is another BSA Cub Scout unit (Pack 820) that meets on the western side of the island that is unaffiliated with any school. The majority of the membership is American, British, and Filipino.

British Scouting has had a long history of Scouting in the Middle East. In Bahrain, British Scouting organizations have operated from at least the early 1950s with multiple Groups operating previously at different locations.

Scouts play vital role in strengthening the message and culture of peace –

For World Scouting, the subject of peace and peace education has been a constant interest since the inception of the Movement. Our founder, Baden-Powell, had instilled this mindset from the start, inviting Scouts to engage in a "global network of service", to unite all efforts regardless of nationalities, religion, ethnicities or age, envisioning all Scouts to collaborate to help others and create positive change in the community and the world. We call for all Scouts to take action, to promote and extend this message. We invite you to get inspired, learn, decide on your actions and take action for peace...to create a better world.

1. Acts of kindness – do a good turn

Peace starts with simple gestures. All around you, there's always a chance to make a positive change.

2. Promote Diversity, Inclusion and Dialogue for Mutual Understanding

Find a person who is different from you and take a selfie together, demonstrating your commitment to work for peace and dialogue. Tell us why you are different and why you are committing to work together for peace.

3. Take Action For A Better World

Find inspiration in your community and with friends around the world. Look around the places you spend the most time, talk with friends, parents, people you admire and choose a cause. GET INTO ACTION and invite your community members to join your efforts.

Scouting in Hungary

Magyar Cserkészszövetség the primary national Scouting organization of Hungary, was founded in 1912, and became a member of the WOSM in 1922 and again after the rebirth of Scouting in the country in 1990. In 1909 Hungarian newspapers reported about Scouting in England, and some chapters of Scouting for Boys were published as well. István Kanitz bought Baden-Powell's book Scouting for Boys and started the first unofficial Scout troop with friends. The first official troops were founded in 1910 in schools and Christian youth associations. During World War I Hungarian Scouts cared for the wounded.^{[7]21} After World War I Scout groups were founded in many schools and the first student Scouting groups appeared. Troops were also founded in factories. In 1922 Teleki Pál, a prime minister, was elected as Chief Scout. Air Scouts were introduced in Hungary and a National Scout Brass Band was founded. Before the end of World War II, the national Hungarian Scouts were ordered to merge with the extremist right-leaning youth organization Hungarista Őrszem, but it was never really executed. In 1948, Scouting was officially abolished in Hungary by the Communist regime but it remained nascent underground. In 1989, Scouting was again legalized, and during that year Scouting groups appeared as though spontaneously, surprising many by how quickly it returned. In 1994, after democracy and Scouting was reestablished in Hungary, the community around Gödöllő moved to locate and re-erect a statue commemorating the 1933 World Jamboree held there. With the growth of Scouting in Hungary, changes to the organization include girl membership, who have their own patrols, and the expansion from towns into villages, allowing otherwise isolated children to participate.
